SENATOR HILL
FEELS HURT.
A Report that He Blames
Shepard for a Demand that
He Refuse to Run.
HIS OVERTURES TO THE LATTER
Said to Have Even Offered to Let Him Name the Candidate for Governor.
BASIS OF A RUMOR ABOUT GAYNOR
The Senator Holds a Conference
With Bourke Cockran and Geo. B. McClellan.

That Senator David B. Hill is not altogether satisfied with the work of his harmony cohort may be gathered from the statement that he was not this morning in so good a humor as he appeared yesterday.

His attention had been called to a two-column editorial in the Brooklyn Eagle of the date of yesterday, practically demanding of him that he decline the nomination, so that the State Committee could offer the nomination to Justice William J. Gaynor. The editorial was uncompromising in tone to the Senator, and laudatory of Justice Gaynor.

The editor of the paper is very close to Justice Gaynor and to Edward M. Shepard, and in view of the advances and offers the Senator has made through his agents to Mr. Shepard, he is said to feel that the latter might have at least prevented so deliberate an insult.

It is stated on pretty good authority that when Mr. Hill came to town on his mission of harmony he sent to Mr. Shepard to know what could be done to heal the differences between the latter and the machine managers.

He offered to see to it that the Shepards should have representation on the State Committee. This was refused. He then offered to use his influence to secure a division of the local offices in which the Shepards should share. This offer was also refused.

The Senator then instructed his agents to say to Mr. Shepard that his stand in favor of a third ticket indicated that nothing would suit him but the change of naming the Democratic candidate for Governor, and that Mr. Hill was willing to decline the nomination and let the Antis select the candidate, if by so doing harmony could be secured.

Mr. Shepard didn't accept this either. He may have thought the Senator made the offer as a piece of sarcasm, but it is believed in other quarters that Mr. Hill made it in good faith.

Then what did Mr. Shepard want? Nothing—that is, nothing but fight, as the editorial in question seems to indicate to Mr. Hill.

It may be set down as a fact that the last offer of Mr. Hill was to decline the nomination in favor of Justice Gaynor. The Senator was up bright and early this morning and ready for the political business ahead of him. The only visitors at his rooms in the Hotel Normandie were Bourke Cockran and Col. George B. McClellan.

Cockran dropped in at 9 o'clock, and was immediately shown up to the Senator's apartments. He was followed by McClellan half an hour later.

The three held a consultation on the political situation, which lasted for over two hours.

There were no other callers of prominence, and nothing occurred to interrupt the council of the three leaders.

At Democratic headquarters, at the Park Avenue Hotel, it was given out that Secretary Charles De Freest had gone to Albany to get together a stock of tables and chairs and other paraphernalia necessary to the furnishing of the apartments. He will return tonight.

Towards noon Amasa J. Parker, of Albany, dropped in for a short talk with Mr. Hill.

REVOLT IN MONGOLIA.
Troops Have Been Sent from Peking to Quell the Outbreak.
Serious Troubles Reported in the Chinese Imperial Palace.
Japanese Perhaps Intend to Raid the Arsenal at Kirin.

(By Associated Press.)

TIEN-TSIN, Oct. 5.—Reports have reached here that a rebellion has broken out in the province of Mongolia.

A number of Europeans from the outlying districts are arriving here. The residents of Tien-Tsin are taking every precaution possible against an anticipated attack on the part of the natives.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Mr. Allen, formerly British Consul at New-Chwang, writes to The Times, stating that Lanchow, where the Japanese are reported to have landed, is unquestionably Hun-chun, near the frontier of Corea and Russia. Mr. Allen suggests that the Japanese will attempt a march against the Arsenal of Kirin, 200 miles distant.

"EVENING WORLD'S" WAR MAP.

"The World's" special correspondent in the field, in a letter printed this morning, describes for the first time the actual movement of the Japanese army in Corea. The main body landed at Asan, on the south coast, and driving the Chinese before it, marched to within sight of Peking-Yang, the chief fortified city and naval capital of Corea, where it was met by the Japanese. There it sat down and waited two weeks, seemingly in sheer idleness, but really in preparation of a landed attack on the city.

A second and smaller division of the Japanese forces, under the command of the Chinese army, should it exercise what the Japanese declare is its most effective line of defense, that of the long wall of the south coast, and was marching over the mountains to the north of the Chinese division, and promptly, from every side, except the sea, where the Chinese were of great natural strength, well posted, and then the Japanese were victorious and the Chinese army was not only beaten but destroyed. Thousands were killed, a few found scenes of fight, the rest, with all arms, ammunition and treasure, are prisoners. Thirty thousand men were engaged in the battle, of whom 11,000 were Chinese.

The result, according to the Japanese, was that the Japanese army has now taken possession of the province of Mongolia. Troops from Peking have been sent to quell the uprising.

Serious troubles are said to have arisen within the palace at Peking. No details have reached here as yet.

AFTER THE WAR SCARE.

Talk of Anglo-Russian Trouble—The British in China.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Daily News, in a leading article, quoting John Russell Young's statement in reference to the Korean war, says: "The Cabinet had naturally to discuss the proper steps to take in the emergency of a Japanese rush over Chinese ports, such as Mr. Young anticipates. We are far from anticipating Russian interference in the quarrel, but the possibility has to be considered, and it was probably taken account of at yesterday's council."

The News also says that Sir William Harcourt was not summoned back to London at all. On the contrary, he received a telegram to the effect that he need not come to the council. The Ministers, The News adds, will forthwith return to their holiday haunts. It also says that the customary arrangements are being made for a further prorogation of Parliament.

A despatch to The Standard from Berlin says: The Vossische Zeitung regards the Korean war as a forerunner of a great Anglo-Russian collision, which the conflicting interests of those powers are certain sooner or later to bring about.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The Gaulois, commenting on the British Cabinet Council held yesterday, asks if British intervention in the Korean trouble might not constitute a repetition of the famous coup of 1895, which enabled Admiral Lord John Hay to take possession of the Island of Cyprus.

Figaro, referring to the same subject, remarks: "The British once landed in China would not be able to resist the desire to exercise pressure upon the Japanese in order to prevent them from deriving all the advantages of victory. The troubles may then commence and the people of Europe will be threatened, for Russia, France and even America will certainly intervene."

FOUND MEYER IN HER HOUSE.

Aged Mrs. Bailey Has a Struggle with an Intruder.

George Meyer, aged eighteen, who said he lived at 243 East Forty-eighth street, was held in $1,000 bail for trial in the Yorkville Court to-day on the charge of burglary. Mrs. Bailey, a widow, aged seventy-two, was found in a room in her house yesterday.

She attempted to hold Meyer, who had come from her grasp and threw her downstairs. Springing over her prostrate form, he gained the street, but only to run into the arms of Policeman Schmolli, of the East Twenty-second street station.

Meyer's portrait has been added to the Rogues Gallery.

HAD A LOAD OF GOODS.
Bold Brooklyn Burglars Overhauled on Their Wagon.
Two Escaped, but the Driver and Outfit Were Captured.
Minor Robberies Reported in the City of Churches.

A gang of thieves broke into Isaac Rader's clothing store, on Glenmore avenue, near Watkins street, Brooklyn, shortly after midnight this morning and carried away $2,500 worth of clothing in a wagon. They had not gone far, however, when Mounted Policeman Thomas Brady, of the Liberty avenue station, saw them, and after a lively chase recovered the stolen property and arrested the driver of the wagon.

This morning's robbery is the latest of a long series of the same class that has occurred in East New York. Rader carries on a big manufacturing business, and his store was well stocked.

The thieves got into the store by prying off a padlock on a side door. Then they went inside and selected the best garments that were in stock, after having taken along a wagon loaded with goods being driven along the street at breakneck speed, and at such an hour, aroused the attention of the police, and his horse, he was soon within a few feet of the fugitives.

He ordered them to stop, but the driver whipped up his horse and urged him to greater speed, but before he had gone a block further Brady was alongside. There were three men in the wagon. When they saw that they were cornered they jumped and scattered.

Brady followed one man and caught him. The prisoner was taken to the station-house, where he said he was Charles Fink, a driver, of 70 Broome street, New York. He said that he had stolen the clothing. He said he had been hired to go to Brooklyn to carry some goods to a man named 'Boss' and give the names of his companions.

The wagon is an ordinary business vehicle, with the inscription "237 Macchandise," printed on both sides. The animal is blind in the right eye, and has a white star on the forehead. The police are at work on the case.

Several other smaller robberies are also being investigated. During the night thieves got into the apartments of Henry Benninger, on the second floor of 227 Stage street, and stole jewelry and clothing.

Daniel Foster, of 19 East Fifth street, Flatbush, woke up at 3 o'clock this morning to find his door open. He went out to see what was the matter, and found a man standing in front of his door. He called out, and the man ran away. Foster followed him, and caught him. He was taken to the station-house, where he said he was Charles Fink, a driver, of 70 Broome street, New York. He said that he had stolen the clothing. He said he had been hired to go to Brooklyn to carry some goods to a man named 'Boss' and give the names of his companions.

They were picked up on Sept. 19 by the British bark R. S. Hill, from Orinoco, for London, and landed at Bermuda. Capt. Forbes states that the fire is supposed to have been caused by a spontaneous combustion. The Albatross was of 45 tons register, and hailed from Baltimore. She was partly insured.

Raynor Slashed in the Neck While Standing on a Corner.
Resented a Jostling by Two Intoxicated Butchers.
Then a Row Ensued, During Which He Was Stabbed.

Joseph Raynor, aged twenty-seven, a brother of Patrolman Theodore Raynor, of the East Fifty-first street station, was stabbed, probably fatally, last night in a row at Fifty-first street and Second avenue. Two men, Henry Peterman, a stableman, and Carl Forkasch, have been arrested, and the evidence points directly to Peterman as the man who did the cutting.

Both prisoners are employed by Carl Forkasch, a butcher, at 104 Second avenue, and sleep in the basement of the butcher-shop in front of which the stabbing occurred.

Raynor is in the Harlem Hospital, unconscious, with an ugly gash running from his left ear down to his neck. The surgeons say he will hardly recover.

Forkasch and Peterman were out drinking last night. About midnight they arrived in front of the basement where they were sleeping. Raynor was on the northeast corner of One Hundred and Fifty-first street and Second avenue. An ambulance from Flower Hospital was summoned, and several policemen first in the door of the basement found Peterman and Forkasch feigning sleep inside. On Peterman's face were several blood spots. Both men were placed under arrest.

In Yorkville Court this morning the prisoners stood in their story that they were jostled by Raynor, and that Raynor went to bed at 10 o'clock. Justice McMahon held them without bail to await the result of Raynor's injuries.

He went straight to the Indictment Bureau and there had a conference with Assistant District Attorney Battle.

Neither Mr. Goff nor Mr. Battle would state why the Lexow attorney had called.

At 11 A. M. Supt. Byrnes entered the Criminal Court building.

He first went to the Civil-Service Board room to see Secretary Phillips. He was not in, so the Superintendent went to District Attorney Fellows's office, but the Colonel had not got down.

The Superintendent then went into the office of Assistant District Attorney Lindsay. He conversed for about fifteen minutes and was then summoned to the Grand Jury room.

He was in the Grand Jury room for twenty minutes. He declined to say whether his visit had anything to do with the police investigation.

"This meeting is postponed, because Mr. Clausen is not attending to his duty. Instead of coming here to attend this meeting, he goes riding up to the Arsenal."

Then the Mayor retired to his desk to talk to the politicians.

LOOK OUT FOR A MIXED TICKET.
The Republicans Have Prepared a Plan to Place One in the Field.
A COMBINE, WITH GRACE OUT.
Strong for Mayor, Goff for Recorder and Independent Democrats for Other Places.
IF THE LXX. HOLDS FOR GOFF.
What there is for Tammany in a Deal with the Grace Democracy.

As a result of the failure of the Committee of LXX. and delegations from the various Anti-Tammany organizations last night to agree upon John W. Goff as a union candidate for Mayor, it is almost certain that the Republican County Convention to-night will invite the Independent County organization, the Anti-Tammany organization and the Good Government Club's delegates to join with it in placing a mixed ticket in the field, and make a bold bid for the support of the reform element of the local Democracy.

Only one thing, it is said to-day, can prevent such action, and that one thing will be the decision of the LXX.—to name a Republican for Mayor. This stand has been taken for the purpose, it is declared, of defeating the Harmony deal by which Mr. Goff expects to name the county ticket and secure for it the endorsement of Tammany Hall.

If the LXX. refuse to do this the Republican Convention, unless present plans are changed, will put in the field a ticket like this:

For Mayor—WILLIAM L. STRONG.
For Recorder—John W. Goff.
For Sheriff—The choice of an anti-Tammany organization.
For Coroner—Two Independent Democrats.

It is expected that this combination will be sufficiently strong to snow under any sort of a local ticket the Grace-Hill-Tammany Dealers can get in the field. The Republicans claim to have 100,000 votes, the Independent County Organization, 35,000, and the O'Brientes, 25,000, a total of 160,000. It is expected that the ticket outlined would catch at least 15,000 of the "floating" votes—that is, the votes of 15,000 persons not associated with either of the parties in this city. If the Republicans can get this vote, they will be able to find so many men willing to take the chance of going to prison for 32 as it did in 1888, and so the Republican managers feel confident that they can win with the sort of hybrid ticket suggested.

All this, however, in the event of the LXX. refusing to agree on a Republican for Mayor.

It is almost certain that John W. Goff will refuse outright to accept the nomination for Mayor. The action of the LXX. last night indicates that that body was not in this city. If he did not believe that Tammany, in this election, will be able to find so many men willing to take the chance of going to prison for 32 as it did in 1888, and so the Republican managers feel confident that they can win with the sort of hybrid ticket suggested.

Rev. Dr. Parkhurst called upon Mr. Goff in his office to-day and urged him to come out with a positive refusal to run for Mayor. It was pointed out to him that the opposition to Tammany could and would make him Recorder if he refused to run for Mayor. Rev. Dr. Parkhurst refused to say what effect his talk had had upon Mr. Goff, but he intimated that Mr. Goff would accept only the nomination for Recorder.

Mr. Goff, in the afternoon, declined to say anything for publication.

There are to be some lively sessions this afternoon on the subject of a union ticket. The LXX. will meet for a conference, the Republicans will hold a caucus, and the Grace delegates will meet at Cooper Union for instructions. Afterwards, at 4 P. M., the adjourned conference of the LXX. with the others will be reconvened in the United Char-
